

Hebrews

God's People Love People

HEBREWS 13:1 NIV

Keep on loving one another as brothers and sisters.

JOHN 13:35 NIV

“By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”

ROMANS 12:10 NIV

Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves.

HEBREWS 13:1 NIV

Keep on loving one another as brothers and sisters.

HEBREWS 13:2 NIV

Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it.

Rosaria Butterfield

“Hospitality is ground zero for Christian ministry.
It is where strangers become neighbors and neighbors become the family of God.”

HEBREWS 13:3 NIV

Continue to remember those in prison as if you were together with them in prison, and those who are mistreated as if you yourselves were suffering.

HEBREWS 10:33-34 NIV

Sometimes you were publicly exposed to insult and persecution; at other times you stood side by side with those who were so treated. ³⁴ You suffered along with those in prison and joyfully accepted the confiscation of your property, because you knew that you yourselves had better and lasting possessions.

HEBREWS 13:4 NIV

Marriage should be honored by all, and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the adulterer and all the sexually immoral.

HEBREWS 13:5-6 NIV

Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, because God has said, "Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you." ⁶ So we say with confidence, "The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can mere mortals do to me?"

HEBREWS 13:7-8; 17 NIV

Remember your leaders, who spoke the word of God to you.

Consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate their faith.

⁸ Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

¹⁷ Have confidence in your leaders and submit to their authority, because they keep watch over you as those who must give an account. Do this so that their work will be a joy, not a burden, for that would be of no benefit to you.
