Materialism is fundamentally a focus on and a trust in what we can touch and possess. In exposing materialism, the real issue for Christ is not the stuff around us but the stuff within. Simply stated, coveting is desiring stuff too much or desiring too much stuff. Materialism is what happens when coveting has cash to spend. Covetousness is choosing earthly trinkets over eternal treasure. Covetousness chains the heart to things that are passing away. The sin of covetousness is not that we have stuff; it's that our stuff has us.
