BELONG

Can you describe a time in your life when you knew that something was about to happen and that things could turn out very badly?

GROW

Read Matthew 16:21, Matthew 17:22-23, Matthew 20:17-19, and John 13:18-20.

Jesus predicted His death multiple times with His disciples. In verses 19-21, He gives us the reason for the predictions of His own death. How do you think you might have felt or reacted about hearing this if you had been among the followers in the upper room?

Read John 13:21-30.

This scene happens immediately after Jesus washed the feet of the disciples. What does this tell us about Jesus, who was willing to wash the feet of the one who was about to betray Him?

Jesus predicted what was to happen, then stayed with His men and even answered their questions. What things can you think of that He did not do under the pressure of this situation (which other leaders might have done)?

As you look closely at verses 22-26, what do the disciples appear to be focused on? Did it seem that they had any idea as to what Judas was about to do?

Seeing the way that Jesus handled the betrayal from Judas in this passage, how can it help us respond to challenging people or situations in our lives when we feel betrayed in lesser ways?

Verse 21 says that Jesus “was troubled in spirit” because He knew what was about to take place. Read verses 19-29. What do you find interesting about the way that Jesus responded in this situation? How did He lead His followers during the intense circumstances which led to His trial and death?

What aspect of this passage about Jesus is most impactful to you? How does this deepen your love and appreciation for all that Christ has done for you?

SERVE: NWA Samaritan Shop

Are you cleaning up your home this Memorial Day weekend and looking for a place to donate gently used clothing, household items, or furniture? The Samaritan Shop in Rogers (next to Hobby Lobby) receives such items and offers them for resale.

The store is open to the public and is a great place for individuals, families, and groups to volunteer (anytime Monday-Saturday, 9:30am-5:00pm). To coordinate a drop off or set up a time to help, call 479-246-1060.

Memorial Day

For many, Memorial Day kicks off the summer season and puts winter's chill in the rear-view mirror. And to be honest, most of us are thankful to receive a day off from work. But as we enjoy time with our families and friends, let us not forget to honor those who sacrificed their lives for our country to ensure our freedom and peace. Traditionally called Decoration Day following the Civil War, it was a day set aside for decorating the graves of those who died during that conflict. It became a federal holiday of remembrance in 1971. It is a day for us to honor, with gratitude, those who gave the last full measure. Yet, we shouldn't take for granted the sacrifice made by those of you who have previously served in the armed forces or still do. So, on behalf of the Fellowship Family, thank you for your service. And for those who paid the ultimate price for freedom... we remember.
