What is your temper like? Do you tend to have a short fuse or do you smolder for a while? Has this changed over time?

Grow

Read James 1:19-20. What does it really mean to be “slow to speak, slow to anger?” Look again at verse 20. How can knowing this help to control anger?

Is it ever OK to be angry? If so, when? When does anger become a sin? When are you most likely to lose your temper?

Read James 1:21-25. Notice the strong commands given in verses 21-22 regarding the Word of God. What advice does James offer in these verses for living as followers of Jesus?

Try putting into your own words the contrast made in verses 23-25. How does the illustration of looking into a mirror but forgetting what you look like help you to understand James’ point about putting Scriptural truth into practice? Give an example of being a “doer of the word.”

Focusing on verse 25, explain how the “law” brings “liberty.”

Read James 1:26-27. What check points does James give in these two verses for a heart that is “undefiled before God?” Would you expand his list of the “least among us” to include more than “widows and orphans?”

Which of these check points is most challenging for you? What is God teaching you that you can put into action this week?

Released Leader Blog

I would like to remind you about our new monthly blog, Released Leader. It is our hope that this resource will give you practical ways to grow as a leader and be encouraged through the stories of life-change happening throughout our congregations. Each blog covers a key topic from the perspective of a leader within our church body. This month's post by Mark Schatzman focuses on Serving.
Check it out and subscribe to future posts at releasedleader.org. We are excited to be able to share, encourage, and celebrate the exciting ways that you are fulfilling Fellowship Bible Church's vision to change the heart and soul of Northwest Arkansas and the world... by producing and releasing spiritual leaders who express the authentic Christ to others.
