After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb.

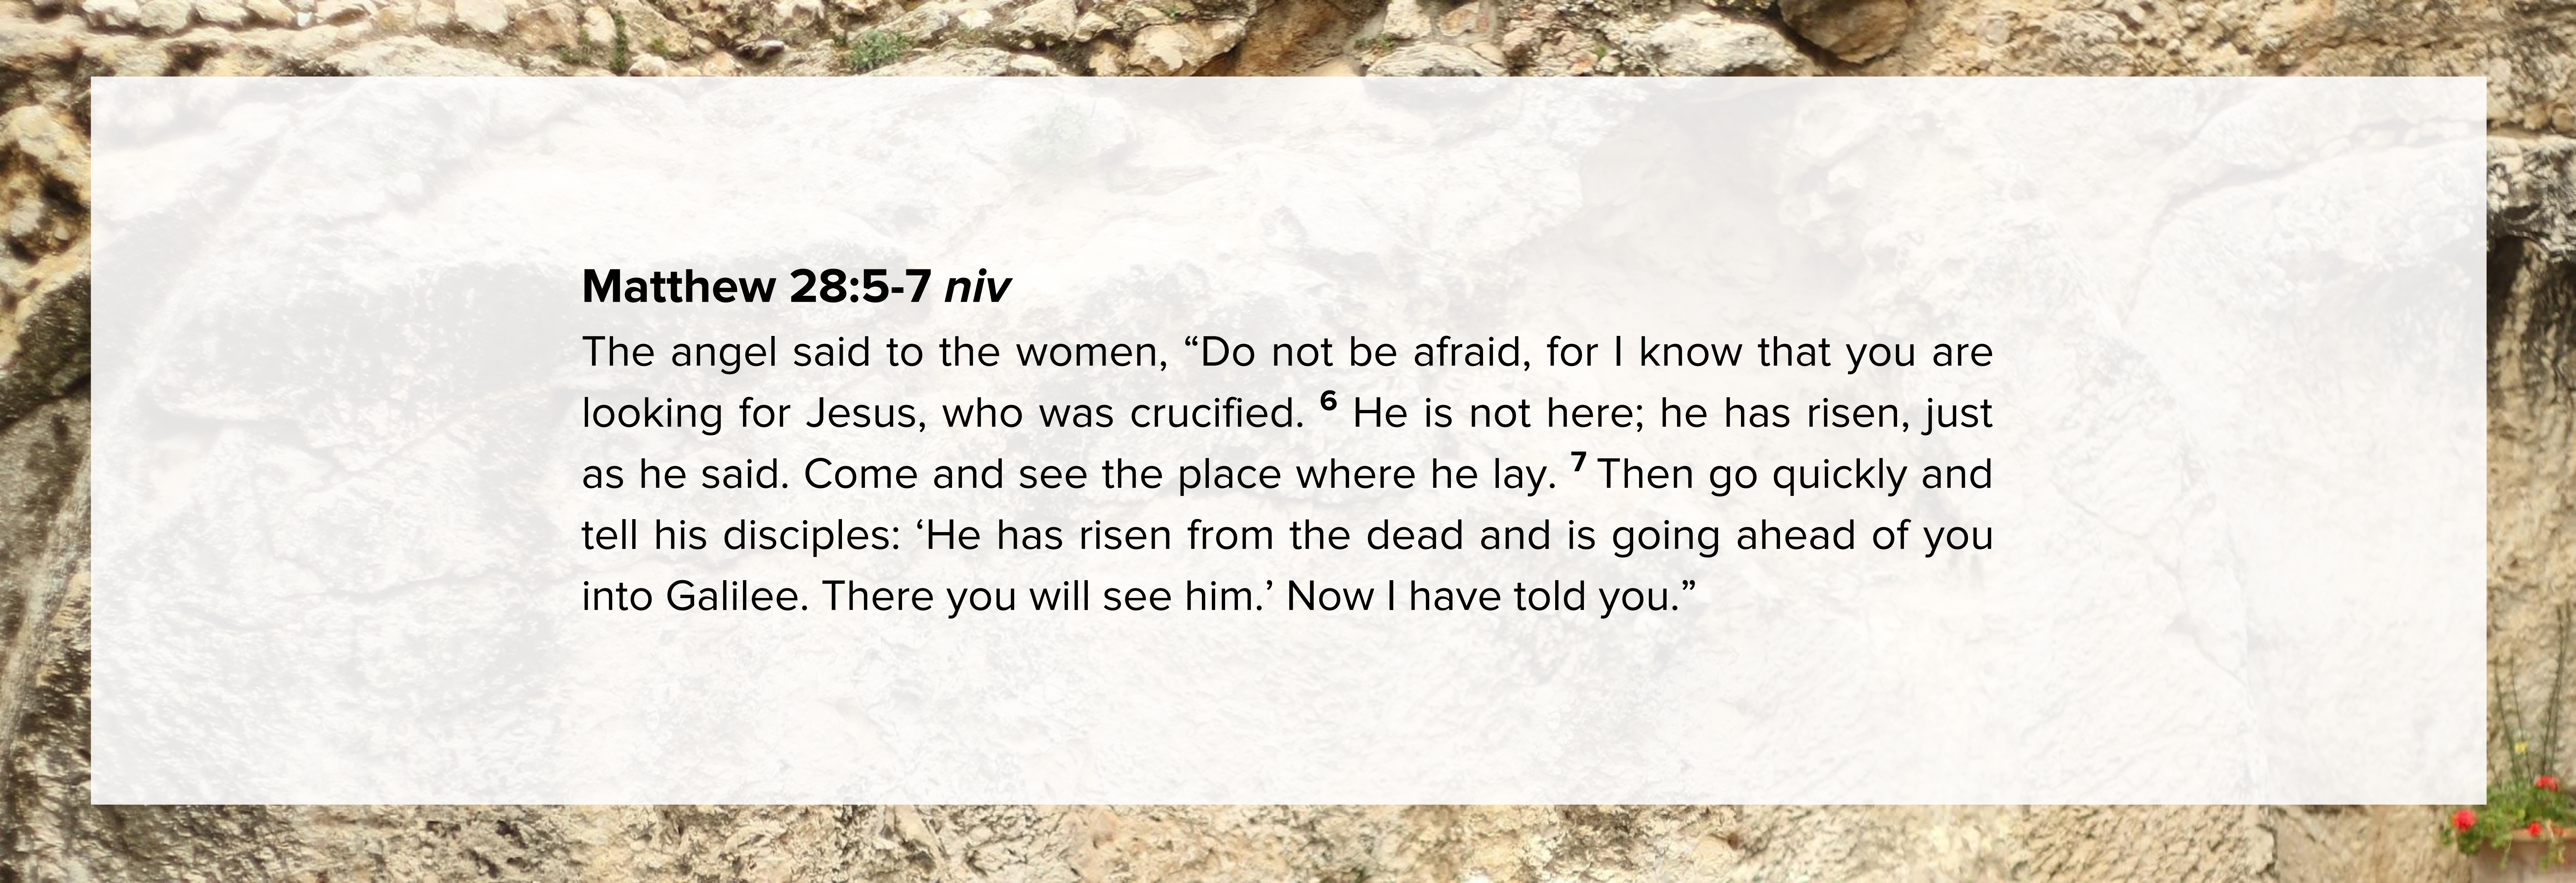

The background of the slide is a photograph of a rugged, rocky landscape. The rocks are light brown and tan, with some green moss or small plants growing in the crevices. A large, white, semi-transparent rectangular box is centered on the slide, containing the text. In the bottom right corner, there is a small potted plant with red flowers.

Matthew 28:2-4 *niv

There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it. <sup>3</sup> His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. <sup>4</sup> The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.

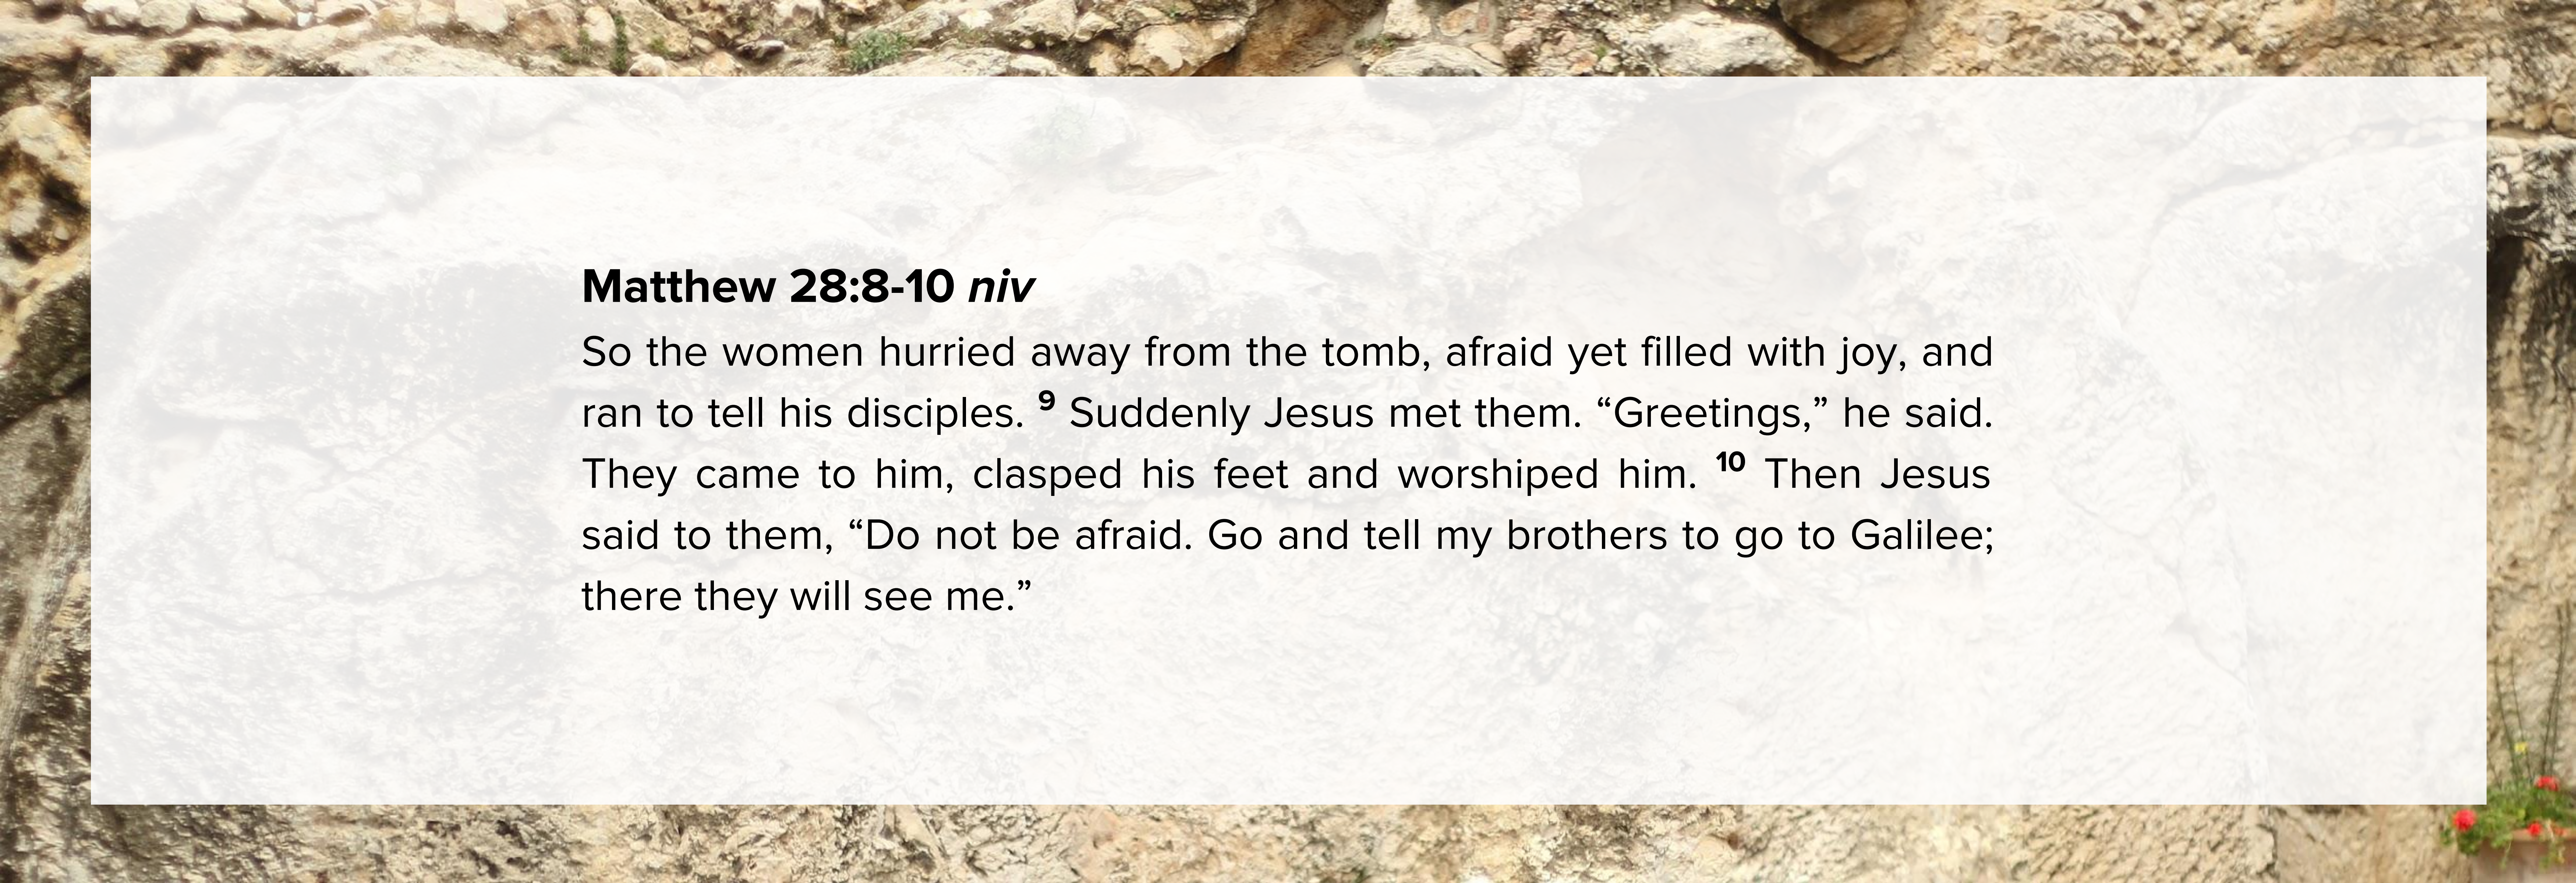

The background of the image is a photograph of a rocky, arid landscape. In the foreground, there are large, light-colored rocks. In the background, there are more rocks and some sparse green vegetation. A white rectangular text box is overlaid on the image, containing the text.

Matthew 28:5-7 *niv

The angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. <sup>6</sup> He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. <sup>7</sup> Then go quickly and tell his disciples: ‘He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.’ Now I have told you.”

So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. <sup>9</sup> Suddenly Jesus met them. “Greetings,” he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshiped him. <sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.”
