Belong

Many of us may not be as familiar with the role and responsibilities of a shepherd. Brainstorm with your group any tidbits of knowledge about the role of a shepherd or what it is like to herd and care for sheep.

Psalm 23 has impacted lives in many ways, large and small. Share with your group an occasion when this treasured psalm was meaningful in your life. How have you experienced God’s hand of guidance or comfort?

Grow

Read Psalm 23 aloud in its entirety. What is the most impactful line to you personally right now?

Re-read verses 1-3.

What words are used in the psalm that indicate David’s assurance in God? When has God given you confidence to walk the path of life that goes before you?

Re-read verse 4.

What words of the psalmist, David, bring you peace and comfort? Share what you are facing in life currently that brings a sense of fear.

List the ways that David is confident of God’s protection and guidance. What was the use of the “rod and staff”? How did David deal with “fear”? What followed David? Now put yourself in his place:

Does God use a rod or staff with you? What are they?

Re-read verses 5-6.

Consider the conditions by the waterside, on the fragrant grass, at a table filled with provisions, or the touch of soothing oil. What provisions of God have made you feel content?

What sense of hope or security do you feel when you thinking about dwelling with God forever?

Released Leader Blog

I would like to introduce you to our new monthly blog, Released Leader, designed to tell the story of how Fellowship is producing and releasing leaders throughout NWA and the world. It is our hope that this new resource will give you practical ways to grow as a leader and be encouraged by the stories of life-change happening throughout all congregations of Fellowship. Each month will cover a key topic from the perspective of a leader within our church body. The first post by Nick Roland focuses on Evangelism. Check it out and subscribe to future posts at releasedleader.org.

We are excited to have a space to share, celebrate, and encourage the exciting ways that you all are fulfilling Fellowship Bible Church's vision and mission to change the heart and soul of Northwest Arkansas and the world, and to produce and release spiritual leaders who can express the authentic Christ to others.
