Belong

Everyone feels a deep need for secure lasting relationships. Where have you experienced love that you knew would not be shaken? Is there someone that you know would not abandon you? What is that like?

The story of Ruth is a perfect example of what hesed, God's never stopping, never giving up, always, and forever love looks like. How familiar were you with the story before this week?

Grow

Read Ruth 1 aloud in its entirety. What grabbed your attention as you read?

Re-read Ruth 1:16-17. What do you imagine it was like for Naomi to hear those words? What do you think it meant to her given her circumstances?

Read Romans 8:38-39. Think about the "us" as referring to your group, the people in the room. Where is it hard to trust this promise? What can you do daily to remind yourself of God's committed love for you?

God calls us to the same kind of committed love for Him. How would a more loyal love for God change the way you live this week?

What is one tangible way you can show God's hesed love to another person this week?

The Biblical Foundations module includes courses Panorama of the Bible, a survey of theology, and Bible study methods. The Spiritual Formation module has courses about spiritual growth, financial stewardship, and a theology of marriage and parenting. The Life and Ministry module offers training in evangelism and discipleship, global outreach, and personal leadership development.

Courses are offered in a classroom setting, small groups, or a self-study format online. Go to fellowshipnwa.org/trainingcenter for more information or email Nick Roland at niroland@fellowshipnwa.org.
