

RESOURCES TO NAVIGATE A PORNIFIED WORLD

1. Good Pictures, Bad Pictures:

A book to introduce younger kids to the dangers of pornography

2. Fightthenewdrug.org

A website that educates on the dangers of pornography. A lot of testimonies and research. Teens and Adults

3. Covenanteyes.com

Accountability software that records every website you visit and sends a report to your accountability.

4. Pornhelp.org

A website that educates you about resources from filters to recovery options and most things in between. Give a great variety of resources with an explanation of what they do.

5. Thefreedomfight.org

Online Porn and sex addiction recovery program (for individuals or small groups)

6. Vidangel.com

Video rental online that allows you to filter out inappropriate content

7. Circle with Disney (meetcircle.com)

Filters internet content and through an app it allows you to manage the screen time of any device on your network (ie. You can control what apps are available at what time)

8. Wifi Routers that filter the internet (google this and several options will appear) Allows you to filter the internet at the router so that any device that joins your network is automatically filter per your settings.(ie. Any device your kid's friends bring over)

9. Pluggedin.com

Gives critiques of movies and videos from a Christian perspective. Gives you the break down of the language, violence and sexual content of a movie.